

1 DELEGATE PULLEN: I thought I was going to get
2 a minute, but that is all right.

3 Yesterday, Mr. Chairman, was the anniversary,
4 191st anniversary of the founding of Phi Beta Kappa at
5 College of William and Mary. According to my recollection,
6 everyone of those founders was young people, young men
7 under the age of twenty-one. Wisdom is genius and youth.
8 Let's give it a chance.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Are you ready for the question?
10 Delegate Weidemeyer.

11 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: Mr. President, thirty-one
12 years ago when I was just a young lawyer at the bar, I
13 met a cousin one day downtown, and he said, what are you
14 doing. I said, well, I am practicing law. He said, on 15 whom.

16 (Laughter)

17 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: I heard one of the 18 Delegates say we should let them vote at eighteen or
19 nineteen so they would have a couple years of experience.
20 I assume that he meant, let them practice on us. I heard
21 some of the politicians with ambitions speak, and I know
